Well! Well!! Well!!!
You've heard that a pelican will swallow anything.
This isn't strictly true.
He'll swallow anything but flat beer.

The CRITERION beer is always on edge, the result of treatment by a special process which increases its quality as a beverage enormously.

While on a jaunt through Sonoma county last week, Professors Henry and Babcock visited the creamery of John R. Denman at Penn Grove. After

nia a rare compliment by saying that it was the most methodical and cleanest kept creamery they had ever had the pleasure of visiting.—Dairy and

ART EXHIBITION.

Local artists are busy finishing the pictures which must be at the Art League rooms by Saturday of this week. Views of Lahaina will no doubt be very much in evidence at this time, as several of our artists have been sketching there. D. Howard Hitchcock and family are on their way to Honolulu, but Mr. Hitchcock's work is all packed, and the coming exhibition will not have the benefit of it.

OAHU COLLEGE CATALOGUE.
Oahu College has issued its annual catalogue from the presses of the Gazette Company. It is a volume of 64 pages, beautiful of text and illustration. It will be a surprise to the general public to learn from this catalogue that Oahu has 132 students in its collegiate department and 277 in its Preparatory School, making 409 in all. There is a faculty of sixteen.

Cancer Victims Well-to-Do.
Statistics show that cancer is more common among those who are accustomed to the refinements of life than among the very poor, and to care for such patients the doctors say that good surroundings are a necessity.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Hotel street between Alapai and Punchbowl streets has been treated to a coating of oil.

The directors of Ewa plantation have decided to call in the last of the outstanding bonds on July 1st.

Gas mains have been laid on Fort, Hotel, Union, King, Merchant and Nuuanu streets and Adams Lane.

Dent H. Robert, managing editor of the San Francisco Examiner, left for the coast metropolis on the Alameda yesterday.

A new transfer system went into effect on the Rapid Transit lines yesterday. Transfers are now issued when the fare is paid.

Dr. A. J. Derby has been very ill the past week and by advice of his physician has gone to Tantalus where he will occupy the Thurston cottage.

Judge Whitney yesterday committed Ku'i, the native who was captured by the police in a rice field, to the insane asylum. He was formerly an inmate.

Speaker Knudsen will entertain the members of the House of Representatives, its officers and members of the press connected with it, at an informal dinner Monday at the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

S. Amo of the Shin Nippon, a Japanese newspaper, caused the arrest yesterday of Editor Sogo of the Yamata Shimbun, alleging criminal libel. The dispute is said to have arisen from the fight against Consul Saito.

The Honolulu Bible Training Class under the leadership of Messrs. Richards, Woods and Brown, will head an outing at the beach on Saturday afternoon. They leave Kawaiahao church at four taking basket luncheons.

The last brick in the facade of the new Territorial Normal School was laid Tuesday evening and an American flag was fastened on the apex. The terra cotta trimmings are now being affixed and interior work will begin soon.

A convenient innovation on the Rapid Transit's Hotel street line has been made. The sign on the front of the "Miller St. only" cars is now white while the "Pawaa Junction" cars have black signs. In this manner the cars may be distinguished at a distance.

The Bulletin stated last evening that round trip steamer fares on the Alameda had been reduced from $150 to $125. As the fare has not been $150, but $135 at the most, at $125, ordinarily, the statement is absurd. Rates of $115 or $110 are to be made on the Alameda during the months the Lewis & Clarke Fair at Portland is open.

RANDOM RUMINATIONS.

It's all right to be good, but don't be known as a good thing.

It takes a mother-in-law to lay down the letter of the law to a lawyer.

When a girl has freckles she sympa-thizes with the leopard, who cannot change his spots.

We regard a man as level-headed whose ideas seem to be about at the same level as our own.

If a friend asks your opinion on a matter, simply get his and indorse it if possible and he will go away happy.

An old bachelor can never understand why a young father should feel proud of the fact that the baby looks like him.

Most single women say they wouldn't marry the best man in the world, and most married women know they didn't.

Many men have achieved a reputation for philanthropy because they gave back the collar button to the man from whom they stole a shirt.

A SAFE SPECULATION.

and Chamberlain's Pain Balm gets you back to work in a few days, will it not pay for itself several times over? There is no need of suffering from rheumatism for a month or six weeks incurring the expense of a large doctor's bill, when a few applications of this liniment, costing but a small amount will cure you. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co.,
